- IV. Announcements– Christina (10 minutes)
 1. SPBAC and Shared Governance (President’s Cabinet)
 2. Stuff the CatTran
Anyone is welcome to come and pop-in, or volunteer, from 7am–6pm. We will have some student volunteers. Donations may be made online as well. It will be 93 degrees tomorrow, so wear sunscreen.
 3. Tri-University Meeting – (Janet)
Summary of our time in Phoenix: We were recognized by the State Senate, discussion topics included performance appraisals and employee classification.
 4. UA Diversity Task Force
Christina just came from this meeting. They are looking for people to be a part of the Task Force.
 5. Who will represent CSW now that Asya is no longer a part of CSC?
 - a. Meeting frequency:
“It depends on the workgroup and what the workgroup’s goals for the year. My workgroup meets approximately once a month to plan events. There are about three to four events in a term. The planning meeting, plus the event and there are two open events for all commissioners every term. In total, there are two or three events/meeting per month for my workgroup. Other workgroups may have less or more depending on their objectives for the year.” – Asya
Please contact Christina if you’re interested in this role, otherwise she will assign you.
- V. Treasurers Report – Gloria (2 minutes)
Staff Appreciation: budgeted $4,000 but only spent $2,000. She recommends keeping the $4,000 as the budget for this event next year since we hope to grow as the word gets out.
- VI. Crossroads Conference – Janet (5 minutes)
 1. Please get donations for door prizes
We have 16 sponsors/vendors, 216 people registered not including CSC/speakers/vendors = 275 so far.
 - a. Can we send out another reminder email?
 - b. We need help getting donations. We only have about 25 door prizes so far.
- VII. Allison Vaillancourt | Vice President, Human Resources & Institutional Effectiveness (20 minutes)
 1. Single employment classification
 - a. Current classified staff hold property rights to their employment, therefore they will not be forced to transition to the single employment classification
 - b. Appointed professionals will have to transition
 2. Concerns
 - a. Will contracts be renewed?
 - b. Which set of rules will they use: classified/appointed?
 - c. Retirement & Vacation accrual differences

- d. Will ETE (extended temps) be contractual?
 - 1. Eliminate ETEs, but change the policy so that you don't have to be out of work for 30 days in between jobs
- e. What are the pros and cons, side by side, of this single classification?
 - 1. Why would classified staff want to transfer over?
- 3. More information about it
 - a. It would be more inclusive
 - b. You must get performance evaluation feedback
 - 1. Will not replicate the grievance process - do more appeals; progressive discipline process
 - 2. Performance appraisals will be called "career conversations" - plea driven process, with honest feedback that can be held multiple times per year
 - c. There will be no more probationary periods
 - d. It will consolidate job titles into classifications and you can keep your title as a working title
 - e. GOAL is to have it all done by July 2017
 - f. Balance out the salary discrepancies
 - 1. As we make new hires, present them with the new structure

VIII. UA Campus Food Pantry – C. Michelle Sun, Community Director, UA Residence Life Advisor (20 minutes)

www.campuspantry.a2d.arizona.edu

- 1. Food insecurity - 1:7 Americans experience food insecurity
 - a. Food insecurity is greater on academic campuses
- 2. Food deserts - the need to travel 1 mile or greater to healthy food
 - a. University of Arizona is a food desert
 - b. No access to healthy food at a reasonable price within 1 mile
 - c. Transportation is an issue to overcome a food desert
- 3. Next distribution will be April 15th at noon
 - a. Present CatCard - only requirement, no other personal information, just want to limit it to UA affiliates.

IX. Closing Comments, Ideas & Questions (2 minutes)

- 1. Please take a look at the committee updates below for information regarding the ERC event on April 26th and the Crossroads Conference on May 20th.
- 2. We need to edit the classified staff listserv. It has been inclusive of ALL employees from UA...not just the classified staff. Oops.

X. Wrap-Up – Chair, Christina Rocha
