SECTION 1. Members and Terms

A. The Membership Committee of the Council invites all active, benefits eligible classified staff to apply to the Classified Staff Council for membership.

B. A concerted effort will be made to ensure diversity of council membership.

C. The Membership Committee will review, verify eligibility (employment status and supervisor support), and forward applications to the Executive Board.

D. The Executive Board will approve or disapprove the applications. The Chair of the Council will notify all applicants of their status. The Chair composes the approved appointment letters and forwards to the University President for signature. Signed appointment letters will be forwarded to the applicant and supervisor for their signatures.

E. Qualified Council members are eligible for re-appointment to additional three-year terms.

F. Eligibility for reappointment to the Council is contingent on the fulfillment of all membership responsibilities and supervisor approval.

G. In the event a member changes from classified staff to another classification, continued membership until term completion shall be discussed by the Executive Board and the member.

SECTION 2. Responsibilities

A. Council members are expected to attend all General Meetings and to participate in one or more committees or task forces.

B. Accommodations may be made for members who wish to participate, but are unable to attend in person (for example: Skype, Go-To Meeting, or conference call into meeting). If a member desires such accommodations, they should submit a request to the Administrative Vice Chair at least three business days prior to the General Meeting.

SECTION 3. Failure to Meet Responsibilities

A. The Membership Committee Chair will contact the member if they are failing to meet Council responsibilities including, but not limited to, being absent from General Meetings four (4) times in a given fiscal year without a valid reason (as determined by the Executive Board).

B. If after meeting with the Membership Committee Chair it is determined that the member cannot fulfill the Council responsibilities, and the member does not wish to resign, the decision to initiate removal will be brought to the Executive Board. The Executive Board will notify member of their decision to rescind their membership. If requested by the member, the issue will be brought to the Council by the Executive Board for a final vote. If in agreement by quorum of the Council, (excluding the member in question) the Chair of the Council will advise the member of the final vote. Notification will be made to supervisor.

SECTION 4. Resignation

A. Membership may be vacated by written resignation addressed to the Chair of the Council, and a copy to the Membership Committee Chair. The Chair of the Council announces the resignation.

ARTICLE IV – COMMITTEES

SECTION 1

CSC Committees

SECTION 2

Other Committees

SECTION 1. Classified Staff Council Committees

A. Council representatives participate on available Classified Staff Council Committees.
B. Volunteers are welcome upon necessity.
C. At the July Meeting, the Chair of the Council shall call for nominations or volunteers, if none, Committee Chairs shall appointed by the Chair of the Council.
D. Classified Staff Council’s standing committees perform the following functions:
   a. COMMUNICATIONS & MARKETING - Committee works to promote and publicize Classified Staff Council to staff and the University community works on webpage, Classified Staff Council Announcements, and Marketing aids: brochures, fliers, display board for tabling, etc.
      i. Any communications intended to be sent to more than the members and/or in behalf of Classified Staff Council, should be reviewed by a Communications Chair or member designate and approved by the Executive Board member.
      ii. The committee will consist of an Executive Board member (or a designated member appointed by the Executive Board) and members of the Classified Staff Council.
   b. CROSSROADS CONFERENCE - Committee focuses on bringing personal and professional development opportunities to staff with this annual one-day conference.
   c. EMILY KRAUZ STAFF ENDOWMENT – Committee reviews applications for professional development scholarships and will closely work with other committees to plan fundraising for the endowment.
   d. MEMBERSHIP - This committee (which consists of all official Classified Staff Council Members) solicits and recommends the appointment of new Council members and the reappointment of existing or former members. This committee also makes recommendations from the currently approved nomination list to fill vacancies during the year. Members have voting status and Liaisons do not. The Membership Committee establishes and maintains a checklist for new member integration.
   e. PROGRAMMING – This committee (which consists of the Administrative Vice-Chair, Recording Secretary, and a Council Member) coordinates room scheduling, refreshments, and speakers for both Classified Staff Council meetings and the quarterly Professional Development series. They work in collaboration with the Communications & Marketing Committee to advertise the new fiscal line up and publicize to the UA Classified Staff.
      i. Speakers for the Classified Staff Council meetings will be encouraged to prepare a 15-20 minute presentation with 10 minutes of questions from any UA Classified Staff in attendance.
      ii. Speakers for the Professional Development series will be encouraged to prepare a 45-60 minute presentation.
   f. STAFF APPRECIATION – Committee plans and organizes an annual event to show appreciation to all Classified Staff.
   g. STUFF THE CAT TRAN - Committee works closely with the UA4Food, Parking and Transportation, and the Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona to plan the Annual Stuff the Cat Tran event held usually in March or April in conjunction with the UA4Food Drive on campus.

SECTION 2. Other Committees

A. These are the University Committees or Special Committees in which Classified Staff Council representatives participate as a member or a liaison to the Council.
   a. Appointed Professional Advisory Council (University) - The Appointed Professionals Advisory Council (APAC) represents professional employees by taking an active role in shared governance and advising the University administration and other UA organizations on matters of concern to Appointed Professionals. APAC's goal is to enhance the quality of career life for all Appointed Professionals by providing advocacy, information and resources.
   b. Campus Emergency Response (University) - The University of Arizona Campus Emergency Response Team – composed of various campus officials – focuses primarily on the management of situations involving critical incidents on campus. Its involvement is central to the successful implementation of the Campus Emergency Response Plan.
   c. Campus Recreation Advisory Board (University) - Campus Recreation Advisory Board works to advise the Recreation Center on new policies and plans for changes, improvements.
   d. Commission on the Status of Women (University) - CSW is a group of women and men who want to facilitate the vision of a just and inclusive UA Campus by supporting the creation of a place that allows women and men to be successful in their education and work. We proactively seek to implement programs such as on-site child care for employees and students and parental accommodation for graduate students, we monitor the statistics and culture on campus to identify signs that indicate that women are succeeding and we seek to raise awareness to improve all of our behaviors towards a more inclusive future.
   e. Emergency Employee Fund (University - Chair of the Council Only) - The University of Arizona (UA) community has a long history of demonstrating compassion for its members and for providing generous donations to colleagues in need. The University of Arizona Employee Emergency Fund (EEF) has been established to provide another opportunity to offer support to colleagues who face an unexpected, temporary financial hardship, such as rent, utilities, or other essential expenses, as a result of sudden illness, a family crisis, or a natural disaster. Awards are contingent on adequate contributions to the fund and the other requirements set forth within the application.

f. Employee Recognition/On Our Own Time – Classified Staff Council, Appointed Professional Advisory Council, Shared Governance and Campus Community Advisory Committee, Financial Services Office, President’s Office and past winner’s participate as members for this committee. The committee plans the annual Excellence Awards ceremony and recognizes both nominees and winners.

g. Faculty Senate (University – Two Executive Board Members) - The University of Arizona practices shared governance with its faculty, appointed personnel, staff, students, and our ultimate governing body, the Arizona Board of Regents. Faculty members share in recommending academic curricula and academic personnel policies, of course, but also in the strategic and financial planning process; and in developing policies and procedures relative to the general operations and development of the University. The voice of the faculty is strong and respected, and your collective wisdom is needed as we face dramatic changes in teaching and research, communications technology, and financial support. Your participation in the faculty governance process, on committees, in the Faculty Senate, on SPBAC, etc. helps to improve this University and to protect faculty rights.

h. Naming Committee (University - Chair of the Council Only) - The University President shall forward all proposals for honorary naming of any site on University property to the attention of the Naming Advisory Committee. After review and deliberation, the committee forwards a written recommendation on each proposal to the University President for further action.

i. Parking and Transportation Services Advisory Board (University) - The Parking & Transportation Services department is ready to assist you with your parking permit and transportation needs. The advisory board serves as a sounding board for new ideas and programs.

j. Shared Governance Review Committee (University - Chair of the Council Only) - The Shared Governance Review Committee addresses issues regarding the implementation and functioning of the procedures contained in the Shared Governance Guidelines and Agreements as may be entered into from time to time. It will establish and maintain processes to (1) review compliance with the agreement, (2) examine ways in which apparent breaches of the agreement can be addressed, and (3) consider possible extensions of the agreement. It is the body to which members of the University community can bring particular shared governance concerns, and it will also examine whether the agreement has been violated or is in need of clarification or modification. Meets as needed, 1 to 2 times per year.

k. Strategic Planning and Budget Advisory Committee (University - Chair of the Council and a Classified Staff Council member as alternate) - SPBAC in consultation and dialogue with the University President, Provost, and the University community, supports and enhances the success of the University through thoughtful and informed advice relating to: strategic planning, assessment of institutional priorities, review of budgetary policies, and the evaluation of programs and services. The SPBAC chair shall provide regular reports to the Faculty Senate. In partnership with the University, SPBAC: Develops and disseminates the University's strategic plan; Identifies issues that facilitate or impede the pursuit of the University’s mission; Provides advice on budget policies, significant budgetary actions and institutional priorities consistent with the strategic plan of the University; Evaluates the effectiveness of plans, policies, and the assessments that affect the entire infrastructure of the University; and Develops guidelines for setting planning and budgeting priorities.

l. Tri-University Classified Staff Executive Board (Classified Staff Council Executive Board) - a group comprised of the Executive Boards of the classified staff councils of the three state universities: ASU, NAU, and the UA. The purpose of the Tri-U Board organization is to work together on mutual concerns and present a united front on those issues. The Classified Staff Council, as a member council of the Tri-U Board, accepts as By-laws the covenants and conventions of the Tri-University Classified Staff Executive Board Policies and Procedures.

m. UA Retiree Association (University) - There are about 800 UARA members as retirees from the University of Arizona. The Executive Committee is the decision making group and is composed of the four officers. In addition, it is a Council that engages in information sharing, topical discussions, and advice. It is composed of all committee chairs and liaison representatives of relevant campus organizations.

n. University Hearing Board (University) - The Hearing Board is the body that conducts hearings concerning suspensions, expulsions, and degree revocations. The Hearing Board is advisory to the Vice President for Student Affairs who will make the final decision. The purpose of the Hearing Board is to formulate a recommendation to the Vice President for Student Affairs regarding the student’s appeal. This recommendation may have two parts depending on the nature of the appeal. First, the Hearing Board may make a recommendation as to whether a violation of the Student Code of Conduct was more likely than not to have been committed by the student. Second, the Hearing Board may make a recommendation as to whether the imposed sanctions should remain as imposed or should be modified if appropriate.

B. Chair of the Council at the request of the Council or Executive Board shall appoint ad hoc and/or special committees and task forces as needed to conduct special or extra-ordinary business of the Council. The Chair of the Council shall appoint the ad hoc special committee and task force chairs.
